About HBA

The Home Builders Association (HBA) of Berks County is a nonprofit trade association representing more than 600 members of the residential construction industry. Of the HBA's 600 members, over 200 are home builders and remodelers and more than 400 are associate members. The HBA is part of the Pennsylvania Builders Association and the National Association of Home Builders federation representing the strength and diversity of the building industry across the country.

Award Winning Association

The HBA is the sixth largest builder's association in the state of Pennsylvania. The association has earned seven industry Association Excellence Awards in the past six years. The awards recognize the work done by the association among its peers across the National Federation. We are proud of this recognition and are always working to continue the tradition.

The Voice of the Construction Industry

Our Association is only as strong as its members! The Home Builders Association of Berks County is the voice of the construction industry striving to provide quality, affordable housing for the people of Berks County.

Member Benefits

A Competitive Edge

When you access your HBA membership benefits, you'll gain a competitive edge in the marketplace, make business contacts, strengthen your professional credibility, and help shape the building industry.

Here's how:

- Legislative Support – through effective lobbying and political involvement on a local, state, and national level, we protect and represent the interests of the building industry, saving 10's of thousands of dollars on the cost of a new home.
- Member Advantage – offers members ways to reduce their expenses, increase their efficiency, and maximize profits through discounts on products and services with leading national companies from insurance and shipping to vehicle rentals and purchasing. Members have saved over $9M in the past year through Member Advantage.
- Prestigious Member Events – Every year, members have the opportunity to showcase their newest products and services during the Southeast PA Home and Garden Show and the Parade of Homes.
- Networking Opportunities – from committee meetings to consumer events, the HBA Lobsterfest & Legislative Luncheon to annual golf outings, Poker Run, Clay Shoot, and much more, the HBA offers plenty of opportunities for members to meet and network with each other.
- Educational Programs – from legislative seminars to education workshops our members can stay current on industry specific issues.
- Available Insurance Program – the HBA provides various insurance discounts including reduced group rates on health insurance plus worker's compensation.
- Listing in Membership Directory – the annual Membership Directory is truly the "yellow pages" of this industry. Inclusion and access to this publication are great ways to contact & be contacted by fellow HBA members and consumers.
- Listing on our Consumer Oriented Website – <http://www.hbaberks.org>. The site enjoys the popularity of over 35,000 visits per month. Visits from potential customers looking for goods or services from our membership. Members are also entitled to participate in a direct linking program to their own web-site.
- Prestige of Membership – the HBA is actively involved in promoting the housing industry, and is committed to maintaining and upholding the HBA code of ethics.
